

Information for Parents

Are you still looking for additional things to do at home? Please take a look at the websites listed below.

The government have bought together a list of online educational resources to help children to learn at home. The websites have been identified by some of the country's leading educational experts and offer a wide range of support and resources for pupils of all ages.

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/coronavirus-covid-19-online-education-resources/coronavirus-covid-19-list-of-online-education-resources-for-home-education>

Oak National Academy has been set up and is backed by the government and offers a range of lessons and online resources for children to access. The online classroom offers free access to great teachers, delivering video lessons, quizzes and worksheets. Available for primary levels, it covers a range of subjects. All of the lessons are ordered so your child can learn along a clear plan. They will provide new lessons and resources each week.

<https://www.thenational.academy/information-for-parents-pupils/>

BBC Teach offers thousands of free curriculum-mapped videos, arranged by age group and subject. The new online Bitesize Daily lessons in Maths, English and other core subjects will cover every year group up to Year 10. Created in collaboration with teachers and other education experts, they will be easy to navigate, concise and combine the best of Bitesize, BBC Teach and other education providers.

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/teach/bitesize-daily-lessons-schedule/zdtwjhv>